5-8055 – OpenText Certified Documentum Consultant Exam
(formerly E10-110)

Exam Description

The OpenText Certified Documentum Consultant Exam is a qualifying exam for certification credential for Enterprise Content Management. It focuses on the basic operation of the Documentum / xCP platform.

Duration:
2 hours

Passing Grade:
To receive Certification, the candidate must obtain 75% on the exam.

Available Languages:
English

Exam Topics:

Products likely to be referred to on this exam include:

- D2
- Webtop
- Documentum Administrator
- My Documentum products
- Composer
- Forms Builder
- Business Activity Monitor (BAM)
- Process Builder
- xPlore
- Records Manager
- Process Integrator
- Process Reporting Services (PRS)
- Content Server
- Content Intelligence Services
- xCP Designer
- xMS
- Life Sciences Solution Suite
- Energy and Engineering Solutions
- High Volume Server
- Information Rights Management Services
Topics and objectives covered on this exam include:

- Content Management
  - Identify the characteristics and features of an OpenText Documentum enterprise content management system
  - Introduce new content into the repository using a variety of methods
  - Describe the different library management features and their respective benefits for working with content in a repository
  - Manipulate repository content using Webtop
  - Describe the available search features and their respective benefits
  - Given a scenario, perform simple and advanced searches
  - Describe the basic features and benefits of virtual documents
  - Describe the basic features and benefits of relationships

- Users and Groups
  - Describe the available user and privilege options
  - Explain the purpose of groups and roles and how they are used within the system

- Object Security
  - Describe the available object security features

- Workflow and Lifecycle Management
  - Explain the benefits of using workflow and how to implement a workflow in the system
  - Given a scenario, create a workflow template
  - Describe the role of document lifecycles
  - Explain how to configure workflow reports and dashboards
  - Describe how to integrate a workflow with external systems

- Administration
  - Describe DQL and its benefits
  - Explain how to package and deploy Documentum Applications
  - Describe the benefits of using aliases and how aliases are implemented in the system
  - Given a scenario, construct a basic DQL statement

- Architecture
  - Given a scenario, identify the set of OpenText Documentum products that could be used to implement a solution
  - Explain base functionality of D2 and how D2 is integrated with the Documentum Enterprise Content Management system
  - Explain base functionality of xCP 1.x and how it is integrated with the Documentum Enterprise Content Management system
  - Explain base functionality of xCP 2.x and how it is integrated with the Documentum Enterprise Content Management system
  - Explain base functionality of the Life Sciences Solution Suite and Energy & Engineering Solutions and how they are integrated with the Documentum Enterprise Content Management system
  - Explain the OpenText Documentum platform architecture
  - Explain how object types are implemented in the system
Recommended Training:
Recommended training for the exam includes the following OpenText courses:

- 3-8010 – OpenText Documentum Technical Fundamentals
- 2-8701 – OpenText Documentum D2 Configuration*

  * The 3-8013 – Documentum Composer Fundamentals course is a recommended prerequisite for the Documentum D2 Configuration course. The 5-8055 – OpenText Certified Documentum Consultant exam does not reference content from the Documentum Composer Fundamentals course.

Course Delivery Options:

- Classroom
- Live-Online
- Video Instructor Led Training (VILT)

Additional Reference Material:
In addition to the recommended training listed above, the following OpenText Documentum technical publications may prove helpful in preparing for the exam:

- Distributed Configuration Guide
- Webtop User Guide
- Content Server Fundamentals Guide
- Content Server Administration Guide
- Process Builder User Guide
- DQL Reference Guide

Note: These details reflect exam content as of 30 March 2016.

Contact Us:
For complete course descriptions, fees schedules and registration information, please visit http://www.OpenText.com/training or contact us at:

United States: training@opentext.com
Canada: canadatrain@opentext.com
Europe: training_europe@opentext.com
Asia Pacific: apactraining@opentext.com